9. QUESTION: (INCLUDE SCENARIO IF NEEDED FOR CLARITY):

Scenario:

A eligible drug felon (due to completion a government-recognized drug treatment program) has been receiving CalFresh. During a recertification interview he tells his worker that he is now using drugs again. He has not been convicted of a drug felony since he completed the drug treatment program. Is he still eligible for CalFresh?

10. REQUESTOR'S PROPOSED ANSWER:

Yes, he continues to be eligible for CalFresh because he completed a government-recognized drug treatment program since his last conviction.

11. STATE POLICY RESPONSE (CFPB USE ONLY):

As stated in ACIN I-17-05 question 2, if a drug felon meets a condition of eligibility for food stamps, and begins receiving benefits, subsequent felony drug conviction is cause for discontinuance, not subsequent arrest for drug use. Furthermore, in this case, the drug felon continues to be eligible for CalFresh because he has not been convicted of another felony. MPP 63-402.229 and ACL 04-59 also state that only if a drug felon is convicted of a felony he/she is not eligible.
